NATIONWIDE CENSUS OF CATHOLICS IN SINGAPORE

The first nationwide census of Catholics in Singapore will be conducted during the last next weekend. All Catholics aged 12 years and above are asked to participate in the census which will help the Archdiocese understand the demographics and opinions of Catholics in Singapore. This will enable them to better cater to your spiritual and pastoral needs in an increasingly secular world. Census forms will be distributed at the evening Mass on Saturday, 25th August and at all Masses on Sunday 26th August.

Lay Apostolate Sunday

As Lay Apostles we are called to manifest the message of Christ in our daily lives, and to make a difference to those around us. Lay Apostolate Sunday reminds us of our role in the mission of the Church. Pick up a copy of the Lay Apostolate Sunday booklet today to learn more about how we, as Catholics can live our social mission. For more information visit www.cscs-singapore.org or call 6337 3711.
